

National Aeronautics and Space Administration

Return to the Moon Family Night

NASA Ames Research Center

Exit Highway 101 at Moffett Blvd. • Moffett Field, California

Saturday • September 6, 2008

3pm to 9pm (Telescope viewing available until 10pm.)

LCROSS

Lunar Crater Observation
and Sensing Satellite

LRO

Lunar Reconnaissance
Orbiter

LPRP

Lunar Precursor
Robotic Program

Free Admission

Open to the Public

Learn how NASA will impact a polar region of the Moon in search of water ice. Meet and talk with the scientists and engineers leading this exciting effort.

- Hourly Presentations
- Videos & Animations
- Moon Rock Display
- Robotic Rover Demos
- Kid's Activities
- Telescope Viewing of Moon
- LCROSS Items on Sale
- And Much More!

Additional information can be found at:
www.nasa.gov/centers/ames/events

Don't miss this great opportunity to VOLUNTEER!

If you enjoy working with kids and adults,
want to learn something new, and are ready for an evening of fun, contact:
barbara.e.patterson@nasa.gov

www.nasa.gov

